STATEMENTS ESTABLISHING UNINTENTIONAL DELAY

Re S/N 09/746,183

On information and belief:

May 2004 Petitioner's attorney moved from New York to Virginia, and Post Office forwarded his mail for a year, but discontinued doing so on or about May 2005. While Petitioner advised the USPTO of his new Office location and mailing address, he neglected to enter a change of address in the above noted application.

3 May 2005 A FINAL office action was issued, and received by Applicant.

23 June 2005 An Amendment after final was submitted to the USPTO, within the 2 month response period, and thereafter 3 Nov 2005 calendared as the trigger date (6 months after FINAL) to avoid abandonment.

14 Jul 2005 Notice of Allowance mailed, and thereafter returned to the USPTO as undeliverable.

1 Nov 2005 In anticipation of the above trigger date on his calendar, petitioner accessed Public PAIR and determined that the Notice of Allowance had been issued and that the 3 month response period had expired. Private PAIR was accessed by another person at his request, and petitioner advised that the notice of allowance had been returned as undeliverable by the post office.

3 Nov 2005 Petitioner has audited in PAIR all pending applications for which he is responsible and has today submitted to the USPTO a Change of Correspondence Address for each application where his former address was still entered upon the records of the USPTO.

3 Nov 2005 A Notice of Abandonment has not been received.
